Many amusing mistakes occur in the running of a newspaper that tend to lighten the day's routine and provoke a good, hearty laugh but which might not be so funny if the proofreader failed. Recently an advertisement came in reading: "Young couple desire to rent small house or apartment. No children, pets". The compositor set it: "No children YET."

The Brown-Russell Agency reports the sale of the property of 81 West Sierra Madre Blvd., formerly owned by Antonia L. Hawks to Eber Thomas and Sons, Mr. Thomas will use a portion of the building for his Electrical Contracting business.

HEALTH OFFICER RESIGNS FROM LOCAL AREA

Completing 24 years of service as Los Angeles County Health Officer for this district, Dr. J. M. Furstman has resigned to take a similar position in the Santa Monica district, effective March 1.

The transfer will bring Dr. Bert Griddle, head of the county offices in Glendale, to Monrovia to direct the work at the clinic and offices at 211 West Colorado.

When Dr. Furstman took over duties in Monrovia the district embraced Monrovia and Duarte. Since that time the cities of Covina, Arcadia, Sierra Madre, Glendora and West Covina and the unincorporated territory of Altadena have been added.

Carl Hansen is making this fine addition to the city's business life. Artistic planting will flank the show window facing the street with a walk for window inspection. To the West of the six door service stalls is a large black top court with plenty of room for parking and out-door services. The court will be enclosed with a two foot cement wall.

Founders Day Observed By PTA Luncheon Feb. 27th

Parent-teacher organizations all over the United States are observing Founders Day this month, and paying tribute to Alice McClellan Birney and Phoebe Apperson Hearst whose desires to promote the welfare of children and youth, to secure adequate laws for their care and protection and to bring home and school closer together, led to the founding of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. This year, Founders Day has a special significance in that is commemorates the Golden Jubilee.

The Sierra Madre Parent-Teacher Association will celebrate this anniversary, together with its own 32nd birthday, at a pot luck luncheon to be held Thursday, February 27th, at 1:30 P. M. in the school cafeteria. Past presidents will be specially honored at this time, and a life membership award is to be presented to a member for her outstanding service.

Following the luncheon, the regular meeting and program will be held in the school auditorium at 2:45 P. M. Mrs. Donald Parker will give a talk and show slides of her trip to Norway.

All P.-T.A. members are invited to attend the luncheon and meeting, with a special invitation to all past presidents living in this area. Small children will be cared for during the luncheon and meeting.

The Founders Day committee is composed of: Mrs. Gordon McMillan, chairman, Mrs. Paul Carter, Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, Miss Betty Newton and Mrs. Joseph Worthington, with Mrs. Robert Summers in charge of the luncheon.

Municipal Officers at San Diego

Sierra Madre has made 11 reservations for the bi-monthly meeting of the Municipal Finance Officers Association comprising 101 cities in Southern California for Saturday, February 22nd at San Diego. City Clerk Eddie Robertson is president of the organization.

Senator Ben Hulse will be a speaker and state and local financial relationships and the proposed financing of the highway program will be discussed. A boat trip in San Diego Harbor and dinner at Jai Lai night club at Tia Juana, Mexico will be on the entertainment program.

Wm. H. MURPHY CONDITION REMAINS THE SAME

Wm. H. Murphy remains about the same at St Luke Hospital where he was taken Saturday morning following a collapse in Dane's Lunch Room. Mr. Murphy who is 84 years makes his home at the Sierra Madre Hotel, where he was taken, until his son, Lloyd Murphy of Alta Vista could be notified.

FDR Bust Recalls Art Exhibit Here

A new bust of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, which was recently unveiled at the Roosevelt Memorial Library in Hyde Park, New York, is of special interest to many local people because it is the work of Gleb W. Derujinsky, internationally famous sculptor who once lived in Sierra Madre.

Ten years ago this month, an exhibition of Derujinsky's sculpture was bringing hundreds of art lovers to Sierra Madre from all over Southern California. It was the initial art show in Alfred James Dewey's Old Adobe Studio, and marked a decided upswing in Sierra Madre's recognition as an outstanding art center.

Mr. Derujinsky, who lived at 372 Grove street with his family, was known for his friendliness and outgoing personality, and made many friends during the year or so that he lived here.

A white Russian, who left Russia on the eve of the Bolshevik Revolution Derujinsky has achieved recognition as one of the world's most able sculptors.

His best known works include busts of Theodore Rosevelt; Alexander Poushkin, famed Russian poet, dramatist and short story writer, and a series of all United States Postmaster-Generals, beginning with Benjamin Franklin, which the sculptor did for the Federal Postoffice building in Washington.

The exhibition in the Old Adobe Studio here included displays in ebony, wood, marble, bronze, porcelain and plaster. Legend, whimsy and history were blended to make art history.

The artist himself cut a most striking figure, according to those who knew him. His features were perfectly chiseled, his skin bronze, eyes blue and hair a flowing white. His preference of wearing sandals on his feet, with no socks, whether in beach attire or evening dress, drew additional attention to him, one Sierra Madrean recalls.

Judge Valentine To Be Dinner Speaker

Last week Carl R. Engel and William B. Schwartz received their first degree of Masonry at the Sierra Madre Lodge No. 408 F. & A. M., Tuesday evening. February 18th Thurman A. Corneth was raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason.

Judge Dudley Valentine of Los Angeles will be the speaker at the February 28th dinner at the Temple for Masonic families and their friends. Tickets for the ham dinner will be available from any lodge member.

Santa Anita Drive Rated 1-Way Road

Santa Anita Drive or, as it is commonly known, Double Drive, is a one-way street, contrary to popular belief, according to Col. Frank C. Lynch, president of the Greater Los Angeles Safety Council. He stated that under the California vehicle code, whenever a road is physically divided it automatically becomes a one-way street.

While motorists have not been apprehended for driving on the left side, they would be held responsible in case of accident, according to Col. Lynch.

Stork Day At Kiwanis Club Tues.

Sierra Madre History Discussed In Quiz Program

Tuesday was Stork Day at the Kiwanis club when three recent fathers, Dr. Milton T. Valois, Samuel McElfresh and Peter Ward, were guests of honor at the Stork table, properly decorated for the occasion, with bibs for the fathers to wear, etc., the table decorations and implements being provided by the Marjorie Janes Baby Shop and Garland's Drygoods Store. Three piggy banks were passed around and contributions made by the club members for the start of bank accounts for the new arrivals.

Four new members were inducted into membership, by Past Lt. Governor Dr. R. C. Simpson, introduced by their sponsors, Fred Goebel of the Malt Shop, by Eugene Lunsford; John Rasmussen, Appliance store, by Francis Eakman; Dr. Wm. Dolan, by Dr. J. S. Miller; John Osgood, manufacturing, by Dr. D. L. D'Arcy.

A very interesting program by Dr. Pritchard and C. W. Jones, featured the program. They answered 26 questions propounded by the members concerning the early history of Sierra Madre, whether the house recently discussed in the NEWS was the oldest Sierra Madre house, which it is, they stated, producing a map dated 1873, 74 years old, which showed the house. Other questions included: "Who was the first child born here"; "Where was the first post office."; "What was the cause of the fued with Lucky Baldwin", etc.?

Mr. Jones was the first Mayor of Sierra Madre and Dr. Pritchard is an officer of the Historical Society.

(Editor's note: So much interest was evidenced by the program, that the NEWS has persuaded Dr. Pritchard and Mr. Jones to collaborate in conducting a weekly column in the NEWS starting next week. NEWS readers are requested to send in any questions concerning early history of the city to the NEWS office which they would like answered.)

Lions Make Homecoming Fete Annual

GOSWILLER AND HAMM RECEIVED CLUB AWARDS

The Sierra Madre Lions enjoyed an unusually fine program at their dinner meeting Tuesday evening with President Ben Gosswiller at the helm. The club paid tribute to one of America's great when Carl M. Peterson read "The Third Son of February".

Program chairman, A. E. Morgan presented Mr. and Mrs. Don Parker as guests of the evening. Mrs. Parker told in a most interesting manner of her trip to her native land and showed beautiful colored slides.

Lloyd Welch, general chairman of the Pioneer-Homecoming Days, reported enthusiasm has been met on every hand for the coming Fete which will take place May 30, 31 and June 1. This Fete, which will become one of Sierra Madre's greatest traditions will be the first annual celebration.

A presentation from International of desk paper weights (bronze lions) was made to President Gosswiller and Secretary Harold Hamm in recognition for obtaining new members. Special mention for the same was made to Joe Maple, Thomas Durning and "Pappy" Welch.

C. C. Tackles High Tax Rates

A taxation committee, Thomas Schwartz, Paul Carter and Richard Thayer, has been appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to consider the local taxation problem. Secretary A. E. Morgan has written Arcadia, Altadena and Monrovia to consider the feasibility of a cooperative study of the tax problem.

Altadena has engaged an expert to appraise values and assessed valuation of Altadena property with a view to protesting the increased assessment valuation. Other communities are taking similar action.

Joins The 25 Year Club

Wm. S. Hull represented the Sierra Madre Hardware Tuesday at the semi-annual convention of the Retail Hardware Dealers Association at which the Sierra Madre Hardware Company was awarded a certificate of membership in the Twenty-five Year Club. The convention was held at the Hilton Hotel in Long Beach.

This was an honor most deserving to Mr. Hull as he has been a part of the Sierra Madre Hardware for 34 years.

Club House Set For Big V.F.W. Dance

Pre-dance ticket sales give every indication of one of the largest and most jovial crowds ever to attend an organizational sponsored dance in the entertainment history of Sierra Madre.

Merchants who so generously agreed to give prizes for the affair are out doing themselves both in quality and quantity of gifts. Many of the gifts could easily add to the grace of any home.

The decoration theme will be red, white and blue balloons with a huge American flag for a background.

During the intermission, coffee, rolls and hot dogs will be available. Pleasant surprises await all guests in the form of novel methods of gift distribution.

To insure guests of adequate police protection, special officers have been obtained and will diligently patrol parking areas as well as the interior of the clubhouse.

Dance tickets for the evening may be obtained from the Union Oil Station, Sierra Madre Realty Co. and the Malt Shop.

Many Guests At District Auxiliary Monday Evening

Representatives from 20 adjoining cities of the 18th District were entertained by the Sierra Madre American Legion Auxiliary Monday evening in the school auditorium. It was a very impressive meeting with many distinguished guests present. Mrs. Jennie Clark, 18th District president, officiated. Mary File of the Altadena Unit and Gladys Knie of Pomona were escorts, assisted by Leila Embree, musician. Minnie Stinman was the chaplain for the evening.

Distinguished guests present were Edna Heart and Ernestine Aylesward and Past District President Myrna Wyncoop. Mrs. Lucille Nollac, President of the local unit, presented each officer and distinguished guest with a camellia corsage.

Refreshments were served in the cafeteria later using Washington Birthday motif under the direction of Elizabeth Steinberger assisted by Mesdames Noel, Hoegee, Faller, Galkin, Olsen, Hopper and Willumsen with the Arcadia Unit as cohostesses. The stage and table decorations were done by Mrs. Hattie Tolle. In the receiving line with Mrs. Nollac were Mrs. Roy Pickett and Mrs. Leila Embree.

The next meeting will be February 27th at the home of Mrs. Embree on North Auburn which will be the 22nd birthday of the Sierra Madre Unit.

Miss Timberlake's Pupil Signs Radio And Movie Contract

David McMahon made his third appearance with a very good impression over KFI Saturday night in "Conquests" and is scheduled to play in Deanna Durbin's next picture. The young man is from Pasadena and the special interest in his career is that he has been a private pupil of Virginia Timberlake in dramatics.

Mr. McMahon, an ex-G. I., was discovered by accident to have real talent while in the service and since his return has coached with Miss Timberlake.

Bloom May be Early; Depends on Weather

Wistaria Queen contestants will be shown first in colored movies at the Sierra Madre Theatre, through the courtesy of Mr. Stein. The date of the pictures will be announced in the News.

This Saturday, February 22nd and March 1st, from 10 to 12 a movie camera man will be at the Wistaria Vine Gardens to shoot colored pictures of Sierra Madre girls who have entered their names in the Wistaria Queen Contest.

Applications may be mailed to the Wistaria Vine Gardens or dropped in entry boxes at the Sierra Madre News, the Malt Shop or the News Stand. It is important to give full name, (printed), day, month and year of birth. The contest for Queen of the Wistaria Fete is open to local young ladies between 16 and 21, married or single.

A Hollywood board of judges will select five finalists from the movie pictures. The official crowning will take place at the annual Wistaria Fete Benefit Dance at the Sierra Madre Woman's Club March 29 at 9 p. m.

Mrs. Ora Olsen, president of the club, has appointed Mrs. Ralph Cordry as chairman of Fete activities who will be assisted by members of the club, Mesdames Stanley Decker, Harold Drury, Sidney Hamill, James Heasley, Woodson Jones, Oscar Willumsen, David Young and Miss Elizabeth Steinberger.

According to a recent survey of the Vine the bloom may be earlier than usual all depending upon the weather, possibly as early as the first of March.

Goal of Nation Is Sixty Million

Announcement has been made by local Red Cross chairman, Noren Eaton, of the Captains for the 1947 drive which will be conducted for one week in Sierra Madre, March 3 to 9.

The list includes Mesdames John W. Porter, W. A. Goodwin, Hall Perry, Frank Spencer, Edward A. Davey, Ralph Cordry, Wm. B. Wilcox, Joseph Worthington, Kenneth Kearney and Miss Dorothy Sellars.

Messrs. Russell and Larry Garland will have charge of the business district.

Miss Clara Sykes will again contribute her time as campaign Treasurer.

Further plans and details will be discussed at a luncheon to be held Wednesday, February 26, for Captains and other workers.

Basil O'Connor has issued this statement from Washington:

"Never in time of peace has the American Red Cross been called upon to render such extensive services to the military forces at home and abroad and to veterans as are now required by the armed forces as a military necessity.

"First, there is an American Army of Occupation in Japan, Korea, Germany, Austria and Italy, and second, there were four times as many American men and women in World War II, as there were in World War I. Thus, now the number of wounded and disabled to be cared for in army, navy and veterans hospitals in this country, and the number of able-bodied veterans requiring services from the Red Cross can be thought of in the ratio of four to one as compared with the previous war.

"The result of all this is that 75 per cent of the present activity of the American Red Cross represents services to the armed forces at home and overseas and to veterans in this country."

RALPH WELCH MASTER OF CEREMONIES

The first of the annual gay nineties shows to be given since the war by the Work Shop Players of the Studio of Dramatic Arts will be presented under the sponsorship of the Woman's Club at the Clubhouse on Friday and Saturday nights of February 28 and March 1, and the same nights of the week following.

"Fireman Save My Child," with 16 olio acts, is the title of the melodrama to be given by arrangement with Samuel French. Virginia Timberlake will be supervising director; James Kelleher, assistant director; Harold Diffley, stage director and Don Parker, musical director and accompanist. Gleam Drury is in charge of dance routines; George Bouvier, sound effects; Marjorie Cordry, properties; Gleam Drury and Etta Leguin, costumes; and Elizabeth Steinberger, wardrobe with Ralph M. "Pappy" Welch as master of ceremonies.

Olio acts include Can-Can number, Monte Carlo, I don't care; and Oceana roll starring Barbara Heasley and her smart line-up with Jama Stratton, Cynthia Ellet, Sheila Morrietta, Sylvia Colbert, Virginia Pratt and Gleam Drury; a Hawaiian dance featuring Dotty Hawks with Jama Stratton, Sheila Morrietta, Sylvia Colbert, Virginia Pratt, Gleam Drury and June Hedin. Sextette artists are Bob Burris, John Goswiller, Eddie McCloskey, James Kelleher, Don Miller, Jack Butler, Esther Santee, June Hedin, Erlene Scott, Edith Jackson, Helen Bouvier and Marjorie Cordry.

Louise Kortkamp and her singing waiters; Jama Stratton in her pony boy tap; Don Miller doing Al Jolson hits by remote control; the Barber Shop quartet with Francis Eakman, James Heasley and San Gabriel members; Bob Burris, lusty baritone; Eddie McCloskey singing sweet Irish ballads; Shorty and Jim as a pair of school kids and a grand finale by the entire company completes the entertainment.

Lenten Period Was Opened In S. M. Churches Ash Wednesday

The opening of the lenten season was observed in Sierra Madre Churches yesterday, Ash Wednesday, in solemn Lenten rituals in the Church of the Ascension and St. Rita's Church.

Holy Communion was given at the Church of the Ascension at 7 and 10 a. m.; Benediction at 4:15 and Evening Prayer and Sermon at 7:30.

Morning masses open the Lenten Service at St. Rita's. Distribution of the ashes and benediction took place during the evening service at 7:30.

The Lenten services at the Congregational Church started with Holy Communion in the Campbell Chapel and each Wednesday evening the pastor, Rev. Carl Smith, will speak on "The Creed of Jesus."

SEA SCOUT SHIP POSSIBLE HERE

There is a very real possibility that a Sea Scouts will organize in Sierra Madre. If enough boys between the ages of 15-18 are interested and make the fact known to Harold I. Stitt, Jr., the plans will be inaugurated. It is hoped by summer time that a ship may be chartered and sea activities started.

Previous Scout training is very desirable and boys who have their apprentice seamanship will be the first officers of the ship. The ships are surveyed by the U S. Coast Guard and the Sea Scout uniform follows very closely the navy official uniform.

Mr. Stitt will be glad to talk with boys interested and they may arrange for further interview by calling at his residence, 108 N. Baldwin or phoning CUster 5-4543.

WILL SPEAK AT BETHANY SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 23rd

Sunday, February 23rd the Rev. Lawrence A. Meade will be the guest speaker at Bethany church. He has spent 21 years in Evangelistic work and is a graduate of McMaster University and Seminary of Toronto.

Farewell Reception Given The Three Robinson Families

Bethany Church Annex was the scene of a very lovely social affair Thursday when a farewell reception was given the three Robinson families, the Murray Robinsons of 65 E. Laurel and two sons and the Homer Robinsons of Suffolk who are moving to Tulare and the Bill Robinsons go to Chino.

Mrs. Rebecca Robinson has been the organist at Bethany for the past three years, and will be missed in musical circles.

The evening also was a medium of welcoming several new comers to the community.

The Chinese were probably the first to use "gas" for lighting. They piped natural gas in bamboo tubes from salt mines.

Food Problem Is Analyzed

President William B. Wright's address at the recent American National Cattlemen's Association convention in Phoenix is continued below from a recent issue of the NEWS. Mr. Wright, whose boyhood was spent in Sierra Madre, gave such a keen analysis of the current meat situation, and such pertinent comments on America's domestic and foreign policy that it is presented herewith:

"I feel there is just reason to have concern, with our foreign trade negotiations in the hands of those who would surrender a fundamental American conviction for sake of appeasement. I refer to the significance of foregoing prayer at the initial meeting of the United Nations for fear of offending a Godless nation. What may we surrender under the favored nation policy in our endeavors to purchase good will?"

"Today we are in an excellent position to supply the meat that may be required for domestic consumption during the next few years.

"Since 1941 our organization has urged cattlemen to make heavy marketings consistent with good husbandry and a continued balanced operation of production. We have continued each year, and continue today with the same urgings, as we still feel heavy marketings a sound practice.

"It should be born in mind, that as of January 1st, 1947, the cattle population stood at some four to five hundred thousand head more than on January 1, 1946.

"At the same time, dairy cattle numbers have decreased by two million head while other cattle have increased by slightly more than two million head, which results in a new high for beef cattle.

"It should be recognized, however, that with a preponderance of beef cows and a lesser number of aged steers, production is on a basis of much quicker turnover, with the result that from a million head of cattle today we produce more tonnage of beef than we did 25 years ago.

"To my mind there is a definite challenge and responsibility to our (meat) industry to see that our customers, the consuming public, are able to buy a good product, on a free market, at a reasonable price, based upon food value, and consistent with the purchasing power of all groups within our nation.

"For a long time I have felt that too little attention and research has been directed to food distribution and consumption.

"It has never seemed logical to me, that if one third of our nation was undernourished and improperly clothed, as has been claimed, that control practices in the field of agricultural production should be exercised.

"It is hoped that as one of the first steps toward achieving an appropriate level to the consumer that retail markups which were found necessary because of lack of volume during control, and the subsequent adjustment period, can be quickly eliminated.

"As I have pointed out, cattle numbers assure an edequate volume of beef. Pork will shortly be back on a fully competitive basis and feed reserves are sufficient to meet any consumptive demand.

"Unfortunately we cattlemen have had some bad publicity as a result of the fight waged over OPA. Misleading articles have appeared in publications of wide circulation. There have been dramatized and mass appealing comments which, as far as our industry is concerned, have misrepresented the facts and appealed to emotion.

"The present outbreak of hoof and mouth disease in Mexico, and its rapid spread to several provinces, should certainly be convincing evidence to the most skeptical as to the soundness of the position of our organization in its long continued opposition to any modification of sanitary embargoes placed against all countries not free of the disease."

"Reference has been made to the bitter fight over OPA. Long extended war time controls in time of peace represented an abortive attempt to saddle upon America a planned economy.

After meat would have been men. Meat was the keystone to the arch supporting OPA. Once we won the fight on meat, the entire OPA structure disintegrated in rapid fashion.

"Those of us who were close to the so-called firing line in this battle have been deeply impressed by the influences of ideologies which have spread within our country far wider than is known to the average man.

"At the moment there may be a tendency to lower our guard in the light of recent national elections which, without question were disapproval of some dangerous trends.

"We are not so naive as to believe that a national election alone can recapture and maintain the fundamentals necessary to a Christian democracy, that form of government on which America was built. That form of government which has achieved the greatest freedom known to man, which has been the greatest benefactor to the masses and which has and still does, offer the broadest and greatest opportunities to all mankind.

"We are living under a system of government the value of which many do not appreciate, nor do they appreciate the danger which lies in failure to develop a zeal and enthusiasm for its principles.

"In approaching the solution of public problems may we not be swayed by prejudice but strive toward better mutual understanding between the diverse elements within our economy.

"Let us support every policy which will develop business and individual freedom. Let us insist upon a sound fiscal policy and the prompt reduction of civilian government employees to a minimum.

"Let us contribute what effort we can toward improving public ards of living of all groups within our nation, through increased welfare, toward raising the standnational wealth and proper utilization of natural resources. Let us oppose those policies which attempt to distribute wealth through punitive taxation.

"Above all let us at all times support policies directed toward world peace. But in so doing may surrender the essential ingredients which have produced our personal freedom and have given us the American way of life."

Distinguished War Character Here Sunday

Sunday night, February 23 at 7:30, the Church of the Nazarene will have as special guest speaker the Rev. Floyd C. Carrier, a Fellow of the Yale University School of Alcohol, and Educational Director of the California Temperance Federation which is the official interchurch movement against the liquor traffic.

Mr. Carrier is nationally known as a lecturer and spoke in 38 states in 1944. His subject Sunday will be "Shadow Over America".

During World War I he served in the United States Army in France, Belgium and Germany. He held the lightweight and welterweight wrestling championships in the Army of Occupation and took part in Olympic Games in Antwerp, Belgium, in 1921. Remaining in Europe after the war, he continued his college education in leading universities and traveled extensively.

From his own experience he has a gripping message for the youth of today. He knows what the boy leaving military life faces and knows the adjustments that must come during this re-orientation period.

◆ Mrs. John Rutledge honored Mrs. Leroy Quackenboss at a baby shower at her home on Ramona last Sunday morning at which 20 guests enjoyed a delicious "brunch". Sweet peas were in profusion throughout the house with a baby shoe holding a bouquet centering each table. Among the guests were Mrs. P. M. Davidson of Toronto, Canada, and Mrs. Howard Legrow, also of Toronto, a college chum visiting Mrs. Quackenboss.

Recreation Group Played on Glendale Field Saturday

Recreation participants, including the shuffle board members, all the horse shoe tossers and many five hundred players motored to Glendale Saturday afternoon, leaving their old stamping ground deserted and still. They met and contested with similar groups from Pasadena and Glendale.

Our local shufflers were compelled to bow to Glendale's superior skill and the score was 240 to 420. Spectacular shooting was done by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Murray for Sierra Madre.

The horse shoe twirlers formed a friendly game and enjoyed themselves.

Other games participated in were roque, cards and chess, followed by customary refreshments of doughnuts and coffee served by Mrs. George Ruth.

The next event on the program will take place in Central Park, Pasadena on February 22 at 1 o'clock, where our local horse shoe team will have a bout with the group from Huntington Park.

Benefit Dance Net Gift Presented To George Coble

A group of young people were able to present a nice sum of money to George Coble at Los Angeles General Hospital Sunday as a net result from the dance which was held in his honor Saturday night at the Woman's clubhouse. The committee sponsoring the dance was headed by Jack Shearer, chairman, with Johnnie Wolcott, Jackie Davis, Susan Webster, and James Vernon, assisting.

The dance was well attended Saturday night considering the very short notice given.

It is understood that George is to have another operation before he will be on the mend.

"Yes, I proposed to you five times before you said 'yes', and then my luck failed."

WARREN'S FEATHERTEX BABY PANTS. I'm asking the paper to print the name in bold face type because they are not only wonderful baby pants, but I had to go clear to San Francisco to persuade the Warren people to let me sell the line. The Balling Baby Shop is the first store in Monrovia to have them, and I want to send a copy of this up to Warren's to show them our appreciation, and to show them that we don't waste any time telling our customers about a good thing as soon as we get it. FEATHERTEX baby pants are soft as down, fine rubberized batiste, washable, waterproof and acid proof. And only 69c.

For little 1 to 3 sizers we just got in some of the cutest little coats you ever saw . . . "Little Princess" coats. They are a nice weight for spring, half wool, half cotton, pink or blue with embroidery trim, and matching bonnet. 7.95. Then there are some all-wool ones, also size 1 to 3, also with bonnets. They are trimmed with white braid. 12.95.

WANT A LITTLE DOPE on what's new in little girls' sun suits? Bloomer styles. Yep, "bloomergirl" sun suits. They are blue-and-white or red-and white candy stripe seersucker, or a brown print that's flattering to brown eyes, and a blue print for the blue-eyed girls. They tie with a bow on one shoulder. Some mothers say they're just the ticket for ballet lessons. 2.50.

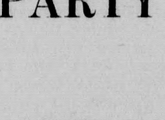

*

MILDRED EDWARDS . . . she's my right hand man . . . just stands and smiles and sighs when she looks at all the new baby bonnets we have now . . . and so do I! They're the sweetest things. (She has a New Grandson) Even if you, like we, don't even have a LITTLE baby any more, stop in and look at them . . . dainty white lace, eyelet batiste, pique, pinks, blues, pale yellows, tiny buds and ribbon trims . . . ah, the pleasant thoughts we have every few minutes at the Balling Baby Shop!

*

Arcadia Increase In Residents Indicative Of Area's Growth

Arcadia has added more than 800 new residents to its skyrocketing population in the past year, according to a report of the Regional Planning Commission to the Board of Supervisors. Based on these figures, it is estimated Arcadia's population April 1 will be 16,359, compared to 9,100 in 1940.

Scientists are saying, you know, that man should live on the average for 100 years. And they're working now on the problem.

Not all of us, perhaps, would want to live for a century. But regardless of the number of our years, we want to live them free of hampering ills. And on that score, the men of science can do much for us. Consult your Physician. Work with him toward the goal of a longer, happier life.

THE GREEN FROG

Gainst minor evils let him pray,
Who Fortune's favour curries--
For one that big misfortunes slay,
Ten die of little worries.
—George Robert Sims

THE PONIES ARE STILL RUNNING at Santa Anita. POP thinks they must feed some of them a bucket of buck shot before they run. Judging by the disgusted comments I hear from the more honest bettors, I think I could out-hop a lot of those hay burners! GILES, the meat chopper man, snorts: "The sport of kings, bah! Only a king could afford to play THOSE nags!" Which leads me to tell you of a more enjoyable and less expensive sport which some of my boys are playing at:

BELIEVE IT OR NOT, I HAVE a bowling team; and a pretty good one too, say I, with becoming modesty! CLARE and LES presented the idea to me several months ago. Since they and some others didn't seem to know how to spend their long, winter evenings, I told them they could use my name, provided they limited their team to guys who either worked here or bought their corned beef and cabbage here. Hence, the ROBERTS FROGS!

IN DUE TIME, LES COX GOT TOO GOOD for our league, POP conked himself on the right rear fender with a ball, and Ray Shaw left for greener pastures—so the team now consists of five keglers whose names sound like a partial list of the "Fighting Irish", though in truth, 'tis only the full list of the "Fighting Frogs"!

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, I GIVE YOU: Attilio (Till) Guardia, the "Little Flower" of Sierra Madre, who bowled a 242 with a series of 600 in our last game; Joe (Cannonball) Murphy, the Irish endive trimmer, who hits the pins so hard they fly into the next alley, and then gets sore because they won't score him in both alleys; Carl (Count-em-twice) Shields, the careful and competent Scotchman; Rudy (Kraut) Behrens, old "400", who always turns in a good score; and Clare (Butcher Boy) Pesek, the arm-waving Bohunk who should leave his new ball at home, but who usually manages to hit 'em with any old ball! A good bunch of guys! Though they got off to a slow start, they should finish among the first three of the ten teams in the Community League. They play Wednesday nights at 9 o'clock on the Pasadena Bowling Courts. Come down and see them!

DID I HEAR YOU ASK, "IS THIS a food ad or a sports column?" Well, a fellow has to talk about something, doesn't he? Or does he? Anyway, if you don't know by now that this is the biggest, little market in the County, I have certainly wasted a lot of words during the past twenty years. I won't say any more about my personal interests except to point out that the warmer weather has improved, if possible, not only my vegetables but my disposition; and that I am once again carrying Birds Eye Frozen Foods for your approval.

JUST A FEW WORDS ABOUT THE MEAT DEPARTMENT: I am instructed to tell you that the fancy Prime Ribs of Beef are exceptionally good, having been aged just enough to have that melt-in-your-mouth quality so constantly sought and so seldom found; and that here you will find the most complete line of fine Steaks in this shopping area. Have you tried Luer's Little Pig Sausages for breakfast?

THERE IS NOT ENOUGH SPACE LEFT to plug CURLY, the fancy and staple Grocer. Oh, well, there will be another week. I hope!

P. S.—Meat Department ONLY will be closed Washington's birthday.

UNTIL THEN, SO LONG!

New Books In Library

In the NEWS recently there was printed a list of new books to be found in our Public Library. Among these were two which are well worth looking into.

The first, "HOW TO READ THE BIBLE" by Dr. Edgar J. Goodspeed. Anything written by this eminent Baptist clergyman and leading American Biblical scholar is well worth attention, but this meets a much felt need at this time.

There are many people especially among the younger generation to whom the Bible is a closed book. Also there are many earnest seekers after truth who are baffled by the presence of a volume of 66 books containing at least 750 to 1000 pages, handed to them with the remark "Read this". Naturally one says, "What shall I read? Where do I find it?" These questions are increasingly asked by old and young. This book of Dr. Goodspeed is a guide book for these people.

It can well be compared to a guide book held in the hand of a tourist who is viewing a picture or building herein described. Enough of the setting is given to fit the narrative into its proper place, without exhausting one with a long narrative, or description. Titles and references are given so that one can readily refer to the text. The various books are classified so that one does not wander into an ancient story if looking for history, or into poetry if looking for biography. The story of Joseph for instance can be traced without being bothered by irrelevant material inserted by some copyist years later.

Every now and then one comes upon a remark, which like an "aside" in a conversation gives the reader a choice bit from a scholar of the first rank. For instance on page 36, speaking of the first twelve books of the Old Testament, he says, "It is man's first attempt to organize his knowledge of his past into what we would call an outline of history. Herodotus has been called the father of history. . . we can almost say that chronologically speaking Herodotus begins where II Kings leaves off." Or again on page 62 he says as a guide to all readers of all literature, "The poetry of the Bible must be read as poetry of it is to be read at all. This is the most familiar distinction in literature, in which poetry and prose are the basic categories. Never to be confused, since they reflect different attitudes of mind." This is very significant when we recall that more than one third of the Old Testament is poetry."

This may be just the book you need to open the great wealth of this greatest of all books of religion, The Bible.

The second book to which I would call attention is "THE HOUSE OF GOD" by Desider Holisher. This is a collection of some 200 pages of pictures of cathedrals, churches, and temples of all faitths here in America. For those who are interested in the history of church building, or the visual portrayal of ceremonies of differing faiths, this is a very comprehensive record.

—Arthur O. Pritchard

Church Approves Development In Community Nursery School Set-Up

Thursday evening of last week the Board of Directors of the Sierra Madre Congregational church received for review the results of the seven months' study, by the Education Committee, of the proposal to open a Nursery School under the direction of the Church. After considerable attention to the problems involved it was voted to recommend that the Parents' Organization seek to incorporate itself as a non-profit organization and conduct the proposed school under a contractural arrangement with the Church as the housing institution.

It will be recalled that the Church was requested to sponsor a Community Nursery School and consented to study the proposal and seek the necessary permits for such a project from the State Fire Marshal, the County Health Department, the County Child Welfare Dept. and the local authorities. As the investigation proceeded it became evident that some interested parties felt that the direct sponsorship of the school by the Church would be a hinderance to its acceptance. Thus the Board of Directors of the Church felt that it was willing to withdraw from the project and allow the plans to be consummated on a purely independent basis. The Church has proved its interest in the complete success of the proposed school and wishes for its new sponsors good success in their plans.

Davis Home Scene of Bridal Shower Fri.

Mrs. John Yule a bride of two months, was the recipient of many lovely gifts at a miscellaneous shower given in her honor February 14 by Mrs. Julia Davis, assisted by her daughters, the Misses Katherine, Dorothy, Esther and Jean Davis at their home, 170 N. Adams St. The decorations for the evening were in the Valentine motif with a beautiful arrangement of red and white camellias flanked by red candles centering the refreshment table. Thirty guests were present, many of whom had been former associates of Mrs. Yule at the Telephone Company, where she is employed as an operator. A delightful evening of music followed the opening of the gifts.

ADDITIONAL SERVICES MADE AT SELECTIVE FURNITURE STORE

Due to illness Lloyd R. Will of Selective Furniture, Monrovia, is taking a needed short rest from business, and his sister, Mrs. DeFreese, will manage the store.

In the meantime the store is being converted for additional service and will feature fine Colonial and Maple furniture. An up-to-date upholstery department has aslo been instituted.

Aged Sierra Madrean Called by Death in 90th Year of Life

Mrs. August Kostrach passed away Friday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. G. Maurer, 175 N. Mtn. Trail. Mrs. Kostrach would have been 91 her next birthday, June 23. She has only lived in Sierra Madre the past seven months but lived in the state five years, coming here from Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Kastrach was born in Dantzig, Gremany, and came to America when she was 36. Her late husband passed away soon after celebrating their golden wedding in 1935.

Surviving are seven children, 14 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren. Services were held at the Armstrong Mortuary Tuesday morning at 11:00.

The wedding cake has its origin in Roman times when the bride and groom together ate a cake made of salt, water and flour. The cake has become more and more elaborate through the ages, culminating in the high-tiered pastry of today.

Anna P. Bunker Rites at Forest Lawn

Mrs. Lee G. Bunker passed away at her home 475 W. Grandview following seven years as a bed ridden patient. The Bunkers have lived in Sierra Madre for a quarter century. In fact Mrs. Bunker a skilled musician, came to Southern California seeking an improvement in her health many years ago and met her future husband, a merchant in Los Angeles, by whom she is survived. Mrs. Bunker was born Anna B. Pierson at Breckenridge, Mo.

Services were held at Forest Lawn Monday with Dr. Elwood P. Lyon, a former pastor of Bethany church, officiating.

Mr. Bunker has been a most devoted husband through the many years of invalidism suffered by his wife.

♦ Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Pfaffenberger, 1225 Ramona Road, have as their house guest this week Mrs. Clyde Denning of Baldwin Hills Village.

THANKS FOR EARLY COPY!

The NEWS is asking the co-operation of the public in early copy, both for news stories, club activities, personals and advertising copy. We would appreciate your news as soon as it happens. It is impossible to prepare all material in one day. We ask that we may have all material as early before publication day as possible. The war situation is not over in production, we need more help. Our forms close Tuesday afternoon at three, except the classified which remains open until Wednesday morning at ten.

An exception will be made in the case of deaths and emergencies.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE REQUESTING BIDS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the City Council at its regular meeting to be held on February 25, 1947, at the hour of 8:00 o'clock P. M., in the Council Chambers located in the City Hall of the City of Sierra Madre, will receive and open written bids for the leasing of the Sierra Madre swimming pool, bathhouse and concession stand for the term commencing June 1, 1947 and ending October 15, 1947, upon the terms, conditions and covenants contained in a written lease to be executed by the successful bidder, as lessee. Said proposed lease is now on file and available for inspection by prospective bidders in the office of the City Clerk. A cashier's or a certified check payable to the City for at least 10% of the proffered rent as a bond for the execution of said lease contract should accompany each bid.

The City Council reserves the right to reject any and all bids made.

The successful bidder will be required to execute said lease contract within five days after receipt of written notice. The City reserves the right to retain said deposit as agreed damages in the event the successful bidder fails to execute said lease contract.

By Order of the City Council.
February 18, 1947.

Places To Go In February

From mid-January on, some part of the extensive 30-acre cactus and flower gardens of the Huntington Library and Art Gallery will be in bloom at all times. Among the most beautiful are roses, fruit trees, magnolias, erythrinas, aloes.

Cherry Blossoms

Hundreds of acres of cherry orchards blooming, usually during February, cover the San Gorgonio Pass area in the vicinity of Beaumont and Banning, Riverside county, with a blanket of white—matched by the white caps of the tall peaks flanking either side of the pass.

Almond Blossoms

1086 acres of almond trees, in and near Banning, are expected to blossom during the first three weeks in February. The delicate beauty of these blossoms is often enhanced by snow-capped mountain background, and their fragrant scent is wafted for miles around.

Wild Lupine

Due to rainfall and other favorable weather conditions, lupine are expected to be in bloom early in the Palos Verdes hills, near San Pedro.

Fair and Date Festival

Riverside County Fair and Date Festival, featuring displays of dates, citrus and other agricultural products, to be held at Indio, center of California Date Gardens which produce 95 percent of all dates grown in Western Hemisphere. The decorative theme will be Eastern, with Moorish type buildings to house exhibits, and attendants and participants will wear Arabian and Turkish costumes. Entertainment will include Carnival, horse show, rodeo, vaudeville, queen contest, street parade, etc. Probable dates Feb. 20-23.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our appreciation for the many expressions of sympathy and kindness received during our bereavement.

FAMILY DUTY

The importance of making a will should give the average man something to think about.

Too many men put off the making of a will. Why they do is difficult to understand, especially since their estates would be divided according to law and without regard for their wishes if they should pass on without a will. And the division might be entirely contrary to what they'd want.

Some men make a will, all right—and then forget about it. After five or ten years it may be completely out of line with changes that have taken place in the meantime. Wills have to be kept up to date.

Whoever is appointed as executor in a will should be well qualified by experience and ability to properly carry it out. Many individuals, in order to relieve relatives or friends of the burden of settling their estate, appoint a bank as executor. This also has the advantage of placing the estate in the hands of specially trained experts in such work.

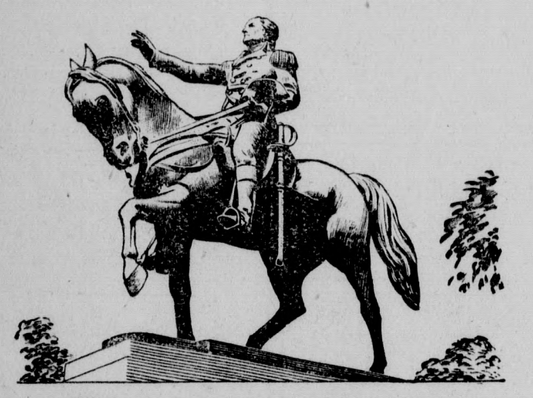

Sometimes a person makes a will without consulting an attorney. This isn't so good. The will may be perfectly correct, but then again it may be full of legal loopholes which dissatisfied heirs could use to break it.

If you have a bank account, a car, a home or anything of value it's just good sense to make a will. And it's a duty you owe to your family.

AROUND AND ABOUT

During my return trip to Bergen I got into conversation with the train guard, an intelligent and well-informed man about my own age, who spoke English very fairly. He had been in the Norwegian merchant marine and had made many visits to English, Australian, and American shores. Such persons often make it a point to learn English, as do other travelers from foreign countries, and I have more than once wondered why so few Americians even globe-trotters, ever take the trouble to acquire enough language to make known their simplest wants abroad. Doubtless it is because they have been informed, and correctly, that all the best hotels and foreign tourist agencies have someone who can speak English. But I often think of the pleasure they are missing—for knowing even a few words and phrases of the native tongue in any country opens the door to good will, local information and new points of view. I believe it was our American philosopher, Ralph Waldo Emerson, who observed that every new language acquired adds another soul, and Goethe declared, "A man who is ignorant of foreign languages is ignorant of his own."

But I am forced to confess that I did not know the Norwegian language, and it was fortunate for me that so many Norwegians knew English! The train guard invited me to come with him to his equipment car, which was at the rear of the train, where we had an unobstructed view of the magnificent scenery on both sides of the track. Besides pointing out places of interest, he spoke interestingly about his job. When I asked him how he liked the system of government ownership of railways as it worked in Norway, he smiled and said frankly, "It is all right, except the pay." Appreciating that I was a stranger in Bergen and remarking that the day after tomorrow happened to be his weekly day off, he said if I had nothing better to do and it was agreeable to me, he and possibly a friend of his would meet me early in the evening for some kind of excursion into the surrounding country, to which I readily agreed.

Back in my third-class coach I passed the remainder of the short trip visiting with a military-appearing man and his family who had boarded the train during my absence in the rear car. Since none of us spoke the other's language, we had an amusing ordeal trying to communicate with sign language. He had been on a fishing trip, and proudly exhibited the evidence, a large handsome trout done up ingeniously in a sort of cage of green twigs. By pointing to his wedding ring and his wife's articles of jewelry he conveyed the information that he was a goldsmith. He showed lively interest when I made him understand that I had lived my boyhood in Minnesota. He almost shouted the name "Knute Nelson", the whole family went into an animated burst of Norwegian, and indicating that I was to watch closely out of the window, in a few minutes he pointed out, on a hill high above the waters of a fjord, a little white homestead which I understood was the birthplace of that stalwart statesman, who coming to America as a poor immigrant boy had been chosen United States Senator for a score of years and was otherwise honored as Minnesota's "Grand Old Man." The honest, pioneering spirit of Knute Nelson still lingers in Scandanavian settlements in the North Star State.

Returning to Bergen gave me something of a "home coming" feeling, especially as I found the same room waiting for me at my hotel. I now observed a curious custom which I like to think emphasizes the honesty of the Norsk people. Leaving one's key in the keyhole on the outside of the door in the daytime indicates that the guest is in his room and guarantees his not being disturbed, and when he goes out he hangs it on the hook provided for that purpose above the keyhole outside the door! Apparently there had never been enough thieving to discourage this custom in Norway—a fact which makes comparisons too uncomfortable to dwell upon! After my ride through the mountain air I was indisputably hungry and resolved to avail myself of the banquet which I knew was always available in the dining room of this native hotel. Nor was I to be disappointed.

I approached the round general-guest table, almost huge enough for King Arthur and his score of knights, in a leisurely and experimental spirit, feasting my eyes before beginning to satisfy the inner man. Remember, this was only supper. Fortunately, for the benefit of later years when destructive World War II would have made such sights as rare as the dodo, I recorded for a hungry generation a few statistics of what my eyes saw on that table: eight varieties of smoked and otherwise preserved fish, including herring, sardines, and large pink shrimps; generous slices of five kinds of cold meats; a big mound of slashed radishes like rosebuds and a gargantuan salad of tomatoes, "Swedish" (made in Norway!) rye bread, and wheel-like wedges of three kinds of cheese. After this introduction, we were served a steaming hot fish with aromatic brown gravy, followed by a sort of curry-with-meat served in large oval seashells. This was followed by large cups of steaming, fragrant tea, and some dessert which—perhaps from diminishing interest—I failed to record. I could now understand why the other guests at the table, all Norwegian, appeared so permanently solid and substantial! I myself felt to be in a sort of pleasant torpor, and after pausing to smoke a pipe of tobacco in the lounge I strolled forth at a very leisurely pace to enjoy the long northern evening as the early August sun slowly sank burning toward the Arctic Circle.

Ask the Professor

By H. F. Noake

Dear Prof.: Whenever I ask my old gent to run down to the store for a loaf of bread he always pulls the same old alibi, "Too tired." Are most husbands like that?

FIRE FLAMES

The fire calls for this year would indicate that we are headed for many. We are hoping that we will get back into stride and use the fire equipment mostly for drills. Surely after the large palm tree fires of a recent date, the person or persons responsible will have realized their folly. We all must learn. Possible bad results of such fires can only be imagined. We must practice our usual prevention habits and be ready for that dangerous dry season that is approaching. The firemen are willing to do their part.

The beginning of the much talked of competitive drills started last Friday evening along Lowell Avenue and Suffolk. Timed to the accuracy of a stop watch, two teams compete for honors in points. At the end of six such drills, the losers will be hosts of the winners, which will most likely mean a good time up at Bob and Thelma's on N. Mt. Trail Avenue. Vern Udell is in charge of one team while George Norris leads the other. Acting as time keepers and judges are Jim Heasley and Joe Swanson. Too much speed proved costly to one of the teams when they were penalized several points for not making connection. Leaks lost points. The long drawn out meeting followed the drill last week was largely due by a discussion to determine just how to judge points on these competitive drills. In the finals, much of the judgment was left to the two timekeepers. That will be a tough spot, if you know the firemen.

The annual election of officers was held and Jim Heasley was elected Chief, Joe Swanson, Secretary and Charlie Brown, Treasurer. These Offices are elective annually and are the selection of the firemen themselves. All officers must be approved by the City Council.

This evening, the firemen will trek to Arcadia where the SGVFA will gather for the monthly meeting. Chief Nellis of that department will display their brand new fire truck, which is a new wrinkle. More of the boys than usual plan to attend this meeting. If others are interested the men will leave the City Hall at about 7:30 p. m.

Several residents have been visited by the fire inspector recently because of burning out of hours. Does this mean that we might be getting just a little careless? It could be, you know. Good habits can be formed as well as bad ones and if the habit of burning carefully gets under your skin, it will be strange to do any other sort of burning. Now is a fine time to get rid of treacherous stuff that will later be dangerous to burn. We ask that you notify the station and have one of us take the responsibility of locating the place to burn. If we remember not to forget the need of cleanliness around our incinerators, and not allow accumulations of inflamable materials, we have a good chance to repeat last year's record of few fires. The firemen would like to finish the year without another fire call. You can help. Let's keep the FIRES OUT.

SURPRISE PROGRAM AT WOMAN'S CLUB TEA

The afternoon tea meeting of the Woman's Club next Wednesday will feature a surprise program to be presented by Virginia Timberlake (Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger). Mrs. Harvey Hickok is in charge of tea arrangements.

Mrs. Arlene Decker will preside at the night meeting of the club on Monday.

Stewart Matter Directs Choir Wilshire M. E.

William Farnum, celebrated figure of stage and screen, assumes the role of narrator when the Wilshire Methodist Choir under the direction of Stewart Matter, 501 Mariposa Ave., presents the cantorio, "The Generation of the Word" on Sunday evening, February 23, at 8 o'clock in the Wilshire Methodist Church, Wilshire at Plymouth.

This is a first west coast performance of a stirring setting of passages from the Old Testament by Maxwell and Wirges, and utilizes, in addition to the narrator, solo voices, full chorus and organ. This is a musical event of outstanding importance and the public is cordially invited to attend.

FOLK DANCE FESTIVAL FOR SUNDAY, FEB. 23

A Folk Dance Festival will be held Sunday, Feb. 23, at Tournament Park in Pasadena. Admission will be free and you are invited to come and enjoy American dances such as the Buffalo glide, laces and graces, Paul Jones, Spanish circle waltz quadrille, squares, etc. The program is sponsored by the southern section of Folk Dance Federation of California.

The secret of beer flavor is in the hops used in brewing. In all the world there are no finer hops than those grown on the Acme Hop Ranch, near Yuba City, California. Acme hops, supplemented by other choice types for a balanced blend, give Acme Beer a tangy, distinctive flavor that beer drinkers prefer to any other by a two-to-one popularity ratio... in the Western states.

Women's organizations of the Monrovia Methodist church were entertained Thursday afternoon tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Tracey, 265 Arbolada Drive. Decorations for the occasion were in the valentine motif with bouquets of old fashioned nosegays. Guests to the number of 200 enjoyed a musical entertainment during each half hour of the afternoon.

POLICE BLOTTER

A "Prowler with a flashlight" call was cancelled when a lady found that her husband was doing a little snooping. Maybe he had something hidden. . Somebody drove a car off the road and then took a sneak. Officer on the job said it looked kind of "wet". Perhaps a good time to hunt a hole. . . A sick possum is reported as following the children around the yard. Cops found the poor animal very tame, but hardly able to walk. Perhaps he got the wrong kind of garbage. . . An incinerator burning out of hours is reported. Police follow smoke . . . Youngsters break into Elementary School rooms. All in the neighborhood of 13 years of age. They must pay for damage done and be strictly limited as to their freedom for a spell. . . The same dog at the same school grounds annoys the same children. . . A resident who was having trees trimmed did not notify city employees of his intention to have the trims hauled away. He was called on by the policemen. . . Street sign removed. . . Removing caution signs from streets is surely not the work of thoughtful boys and girls. Surely our well trained youth would not do this. A report of a missing sign from Grandview and Adams. . . The report of noisy children at the school grounds is a regular one when school is not in session. . . Once more the police hear complaints of the poor parking between angle stripes along Sierra Madre Blvd. . . One of Lee McCarty's airedales felt too sick to venture from the shade of a neighbor's shrubbery. The cops found him and took him home. He felt better when he arrived on his own soil. . . Children are interviewed in regards to school entry. . . Children dren are interviewew in regards all playing in street where many cars travel. Parents should be more careful about this condition. . . The public library was entered by force for burglary. A small amount of money was taken. . . "BURNING OUT OF HOURS". (Better not let old man Heasley ketch ya'.) . . That SAME dog again annoys the school children. THIS time he is placed under arrest. . . When Jim Heasley received a call to investigate a "Baby Deer" at 617 Manzanita he was talking to his son "Big Jim". Both Jims rushed to the scene. What Mrs. Beanion thot was a baby deer took one look at the Heasley boys and took such fright that in just two jumps landed across the street into a nice green orchard where it is supposed this full grown doe has been feeding to contentment. Jim said that by the length of the leaps the animal made, it could not have been sick or injured, so it was left alone to find its way back into the mountains. . . The cops are now finding occasion to impound dogs. . . DOGS! DOGS! CATS! CATS! and when there is no school, it's KIDS. . . Small boys with air rifles endangering passersby. Shooting while in their own yard does NOT eliminate the danger of a whizzing BB striking innocent persons, perhaps blinding them if struck in the eye. Parents are warned of this danger and caution should be followed when supplying children with such dangerous implements in the city limits. . . "Eleven dogs fighting in Wilson street!" Just what Officer Chunn could do with so many dogs at war is questionable, but good fortune enabled him to report that the dogs had dispersed on his arrival. To those who do not know, it is good advice to keep your hands and fingers away from fighting dogs. This scribe tried it one time when his dog participated in a terrific quarrel with another purp and in the endeavor to force a separation, he was badly bitten by his own dog. The best instrument to use if at all possible is a strong stream of water from the garden hose. . . A report of a sick man. An ambulance is called by the cops and the man sent to St. Luke's hospital by Dr. Jacobs. . . When a party of local folks were awakened by a room full of smoke, they were kept busy for some time getting a burning mattress to the door and out to the street, where water was applied and the fire squelched. Officer Embree assisted in extinguishing the stubborn fire. It would indicate someone went to bed to smoke. Such practices are a menace to the community. "There should be a law agin' it." . . One of the city's most beloved dogs was run over and killed by a car last Sunday morning. A sweet little dachshund owned by the Chemis on Vista Circle Dr., was struck while crossing the street unseen by an oncoming driver. Noted for his sweet disposition, this dog will be sadly missed by the entire neighborhood. . . A runaway car. . When residents last Sunday morning saw water shooting into the air at approximately 60 feet, some of them thot "Old Faithful" had switched locations. The department men were called and despite that it was their day off, they went to work . . There is no limit to what the cops won't do to get a little action. A breathless young man and young lady entered the police station on Valentine's Day at about 11:30 p. m. They made known to Art Udell that they had been making a strenuous effort to get married and wanted to get it done on Valentine's Day. "Well, by gosh, you haven't got much time." thoughtfully drolled Art. "I'll see what can be done." With a few minutes to go, he called Judge Eaton at his residence. (I'd a been afraid to do that). "What do ya want?" answered the sleepy Judge. Everything was explained and the young couple was sent to his home. (We are not sure whether he abandoned the pajamas or not). At any rate, the happy couple left the home of the local Chancellor to return immediately to Pennsylvania from whence the young gallant had come for the girl of his dreams and they wanted to be married on St. Valentine's Day.

Busting his Buttons . . .

IT WOULD be pretty silly to try to put a 3-year-size suit on a 10-year-old boy. Personally we don't think you can do it, but even if you could, his buttons would pop off in all directions.

Well, something like that has been going on in the telephone business. Telephone usage grew into a great big boy almost over night, as you might say, and we've been trying to squeeze him into a suit of equipment several sizes too small.

But we've been shopping, just like you, and are happy to report that some fine new clothes are on the way - the right size too, and modern.

Deliveries of the new equipment are exasperatingly slow and we get very impatient, but we're doing our best to give you better and better service as fast as we can.

The Roach-Brown Wedding Solemnized At Congregational Church Sunday

Sunday in a candle light service at four, more than 120 Sierra Madre friends and relatives attended the beautiful wedding service at the Congregational church when Persis Adaire Roach and William Louis Brown made their nuptial vows.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roach of 40 North Lima, wore a beautifully designed gown of white taffeta with bridal veil falling full length of her court train. The veil was held in place by a crown of white lillies-of-the valley, and her bouquet was a muff piece made of white roses and gardenias.

The maid of honor, Miss Janette Roach, was gowned in blue taffeta, Juliet cap and camellia flower muff in pink. Little Alison Mecke, flower girl, was escorted by John Roach, ring-bearer.

The best man was William Mecke and ushers Lawrence Doughty, Reginald Doughty, Arnold Brown was given the pleasure of seating the mothers, Mrs. Roach who chose a powder blue crepe with pink feather head piece and camellia corsage, and the groom's mother Mrs. Clara Vardy who wore a Delft blue with black accessories and white gardenias.

Rev. Carl Smith, pastor of the church, heard the vows with a solo organ obligato as played by Herbert Siefert, organist. The church decorations were large baskets of pink peach bloom, white stock and cathedral candles of gold, artistically arranged by Mrs. Jessie Russell.

A reception followed in the parlors of the church where a pink and white motif was a clever setting for the wedding cake. The mothers poured.

Out of town guests included Walter Roach of Butte, Montana, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Meiklejohn of Miami, Fla., Lyman N. Sisley who came by plane from Washington, D.C., and Mrs. Frank Collins of Redwood City, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown will be at home in their new house at 46 N. Lima following a two week honeymoon at Lake Arrowhead.

Nursery School Parents Group Tells Progress

Reports of community cooperation and support featured the Tuesday evening meeting of the Parents' Group of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School.

Further donations of equipment from interested citizens include a scooter, a tricycle, wheel toys, books and lumber cut into 200 block sizes. Appreciation was expressed to the community as a whole for its fine assistance toward this educational program for its youngest members.

Tentative plans were made for a Work Day Saturday, February 15, at the Congregational Church.

Gratification and commendation was expressed at the action of the City Council in granting a fenced-in play area for preschool children in the City Park.

It was confirmed that the name of the school should be the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School in keeping with the nature of the program.

The next meeting of the parents will be Wednesday night, February 26, at the Congregational church, when it is hoped that an opening date can be set for the school.

GOOD RESPONSE FOR WORK AT YOUTH HUT

The work at the Youth Hut Sunday morning moved along at a very satisfactory pace when plenty of willing hands signed in for the near completion job. Floors were painted, varnishing done and many last minute touches made. William Estes, chairman of the boys and girls committee from Kiwanis estimated that one more day with as good help will complete the hut.

As soon as materials are available a fireplace will be built by Kiwanis for the use of the young people.

SHOE STORE IN NEW QUARTERS OPENS SATURDAY

Ralph states it has long been his ambition to own his own business and he finally realized that ambition in May 1945 when he took over the Olsen Shoe Store at 39 N. Baldwin.

The new store is very attractive with all new furniture and fixtures, shelving, chrome chairs and settees, asphalt flooring rugs, etc. The building was entirely remodeled, new show windows, fluorescent lighting throughout and modern shoe repair shop in the rear.
